Retired Nursing Home Administrator Awarded Professional Distinction

Alexandria, VA – November 14, 2013 – Daniel Farley, PhD., CNHA, of Princeton, WV was awarded the American College of Health Care Administrators' (ACHCA) Fellow Emeritus distinction by the ACHCA Board at their November meeting. Fellow Emeritus status requires that the individual be an ACHCA Fellow in good standing with 20 years of ACHCA membership, a long and distinguished record of service to ACHCA, its chapters, and the profession, and having retired from administrative practice. Dr. Farley exemplifies professional achievement, dedication to ACHCA's mission, and continuous adherence to ethical and professional standards.

Founded in 1962, the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is the only professional association devoted solely to meeting the professional needs of today's long term care administrators and executives. Focusing on advancing leadership excellence, ACHCA provides professional education and certification to administrators from across the spectrum of long term care. For more information about ACHCA contact the national office at (202) 536-5120 or visit www.achca.org.
